Site Overview

Exodus Refugee Immigration is a refugee resettlement organization with offices in both Indianapolis and Bloomington, Indiana. Exodus was founded in 1981 and has been serving refugees and other humanitarian immigrants since then.

Our services include welcoming newly arrived refugees; helping refugees become self-sufficient through employment services, English classes, cultural orientation, and other trainings; providing immigration-related legal assistance; providing ongoing case management for clients who have medical issues; providing youth-focused programming; providing mental health services, and providing education, extended case management, and social opportunities for refugee women; and more.

Exodus is happy to partner with the local community to welcome refugees to Central Indiana!
