

RESTORE Renew

Middle Judicatory Leader Coaching

Your Opportunity for Personal and Professional Growth

Church World Service is excited to launch the second annual Restore and Renew program designed for middle judicatory leaders serving in supervisory roles within mainline Christian denominations.

Through small-group cohorts, the program offers a transformative coaching experience tailored to the unique needs of leaders such as District Superintendents, Executive Presbyters, Bishops, Regional Ministers and Judicatory Ministers.

Participants will embark on a journey of personal and professional growth, deepening their leadership ability, strengthening their sense of community and renewing their call to purpose.

What to Expect: A Journey of Transformation

A Deep Sense of Community:

Participants will address the isolation often felt in supervisory roles by building a trusted network of peers who understand their unique challenges.

Renewed Leadership:

Participants will reconnect with their call to supervisory ministry, gain clarity about their next steps and feel more hopeful and empowered in their roles.

Personal and Professional Growth:

Through group and one-on-one coaching, participants will strengthen skills in areas like conflict resolution, work-life balance and coaching those they supervise.

A Meaningful Project Focus:

Each participant will work on a self-chosen project, such as preventing burnout, discerning new ministry paths or other initiatives that resonate deeply with their personal and professional goals.

Meet Your Coach and Facilitator

Gregg Sealey (CPCC, PCC) has had many prominent leadership roles in which he has encountered the soaring heights and crushing lows of being a leader.

He is an ordained United Methodist pastor who has served as a local church pastor, chair of the Pacific-Northwest Episcopal Area's Board of Ordained Ministry, and as a district superintendent and dean of the Pacific-Northwest Episcopal Area Cabinet.

He now serves as a life and leadership coach (and consultant) who specializes in healing conflicts. Gregg is passionate about intercultural competency.
