

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

WHEN YOU GO TO VOTE

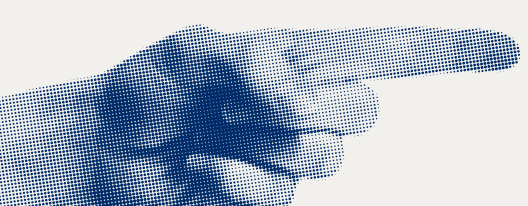

IF YOUR NAME IS NOT ON THE VOTER LIST:

Do not leave. Ask for a provisional ballot. Every state is required to give you one. It will be counted after your eligibility is verified. A missing name does not mean you cannot vote, it means you vote provisionally.

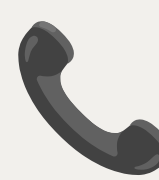

IF SOMEONE TRIES TO QUESTION OR INTIMIDATE YOU:

You do not have to answer questions from anyone at or near a polling place, not a poll watcher, not an outside person, not anyone in uniform who is not an election worker.

Say: "I am here to vote. I am not answering questions." Then go inside and tell an election worker immediately.

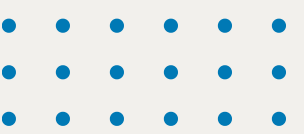

CALL THE ELECTION PROTECTION HOTLINE

 866-OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683)

Free. Multilingual. Available all day on Election Day. Lawyers are standing by. They can advise you in real time and take action fast.

IF YOU NEED LANGUAGE ASSISTANCE:

Federal law requires language assistance at many polling places. You can ask for it. You can also bring a trusted person to help you, a family member, neighbor, or friend. Your employer and union representative are the only people generally not permitted to assist you.

IF YOU NEED TO VOTE A DIFFERENT WAY:

If you have any concern about showing up in person, vote from home. Many states allow any registered voter to request a mail-in ballot. You fill it out privately at your kitchen table and return it by mail or drop box.
